

Preventing Child Abuse in an Age of Budget Deficits A Future of Children Event

Tuesday, July 20, 2010, 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm EST

The Brookings Institution, Falk Auditorium
1775 Massachusetts Ave, NW, Washington, DC

On July 20th, The Future of Children will hold a forum and simultaneous online webcast to discuss ways that prevention programs can both protect children and save money across a range of social programs. The event, planned in cooperation with Voices for America's Children, features a panel of experts and practitioners that will focus on both the practices and research that have been shown to be effective. Speakers will also address the prospects that prevention services can be expanded during these difficult times. Speakers and panelists will take questions from the audience and online. To submit questions for our speakers prior to the event, please email Michael Mannweiler at mmannweiler@brookings.edu.

You can attend this event in person OR view in real time on the internet.

To register for the live event at Brookings, please click here or call 202.797.6105.

To view the webcast in real time, CLICK HERE. Prior registration for the webcast is not needed; just bookmark this page for easy access.

For background reading on this event, please visit this page to access The Future of Children volume Preventing Child Maltreatment and two related policy briefs.

For more information on the event and speakers, please visit the event page. The Future of Children is a collaboration of the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University and the Brookings Institution. For more information, please visit www.futureofchildren.org.

Join us on Facebook and Twitter:

We have joined Facebook and Twitter! Please click here to become a fan on Facebook or click here to follow us on Twitter.

Please do not reply to this email as it returns to an unmonitored email account. To contact The Future of Children staff, please send an email to foc@princeton.edu.

To unsubscribe click here.