

The Future of Children has released a short paper that highlights important findings from a Future of Children article on this topic. The paper makes a case for reform, identifies barriers to change, and gives a short review of model programs and steps for implementation.

The Future of Children is a collaboration of the Woodrow Wilson School at Princeton University and the Brookings Institution.

To access the paper, go to www.futureofchildren.org and click on the link in the lower left hand column. Or go directly to highlight paper.
